

Moonshine_Gaming3™

COPYRIGHT & CONTENT USAGE POLICY

Effective September 17, 2026

This policy explains how original content published by Moonshine_Gaming3™ may and may not be used. It applies to music, sound recordings, vocals, lyrics, artwork, graphics, videos, website material, branding, and other original creative content owned or controlled by Moonshine_Gaming3™.

1. Ownership

Unless otherwise stated, original content published by Moonshine_Gaming3™ is owned or controlled by Moonshine_Gaming3™. No ownership or license is transferred simply because content is publicly available.

2. Sharing Is Allowed - Re-uploading Is Not

You may share links to my original, authorized uploads and pages. You may not download my work and upload or redistribute it from your own account, channel, website, service, or platform without my prior permission, unless the use is otherwise permitted by law.

3. Remixes, Edits, Mashups and Alternate Versions

I do not give blanket permission for other people to upload or distribute remixes, edits, mashups, sped-up or slowed versions, extended versions, covers that use my protected recording, or other altered versions of my music or recordings. If you want to release or publicly upload a remix or derivative version using my protected material, contact me first and obtain permission where permission is legally required.

4. Samples, Stems and Vocals

My recordings, vocal tracks, stems, instrumental elements, and other production assets may not be sampled, extracted, reused, redistributed, sold, or incorporated into another release without prior permission where those rights are controlled by Moonshine_Gaming3™. Permission for one project does not automatically grant permission for another project.

5. Commercial Use

My content may not be sold, monetized, licensed, used in advertising, placed in paid products, or otherwise commercially exploited without prior written permission from Moonshine_Gaming3™, except where applicable law provides otherwise.

6. Artwork, Name and Branding

Moonshine_Gaming3™ artwork, logos, graphics, banners, and branding may not be presented in a way that falsely suggests endorsement, partnership, ownership, or an official Moonshine_Gaming3™ release. The Moonshine_Gaming3™ name and branding should not be used to impersonate or misrepresent the source of content.

7. Permission Requests

If you want to remix, sample, reuse, redistribute, license, or otherwise use protected Moonshine_Gaming3™ content beyond ordinary linking or sharing, request permission by email. Include what content you want to use, how you plan to use it, where it will be published, and whether the use will be monetized.

8. Copyright Complaints

If Moonshine_Gaming3™ content is used without authorization in a manner that infringes applicable rights, Moonshine_Gaming3™ may contact the uploader or platform, request removal, use available copyright-reporting procedures, or take other appropriate action. A separate DMCA Notice may be used for formal DMCA matters.

9. Legal Exceptions

Nothing in this policy is intended to remove or restrict rights that a person may have under applicable law, including fair use or other statutory exceptions. Whether a particular use qualifies for an exception depends on the facts and applicable law.

10. Changes to This Policy

This policy may be updated as the Moonshine_Gaming3™ website, releases, or usage practices change. The version published on the official website should be treated as the current policy.
